BROOKS WALLACE AWARD WATCH LIST NARROWED TO 25

LUBBOCK, Texas — The quarterfinalists for the Brooks Wallace Shortstop of the Year Award were released today by the College Baseball Foundation. The revised list features 25 of the nation's finest shortstops.

The Wallace Award, sponsored by Mizuno, recognizes the nation's top shortstop and will be presented on July 2 in Lubbock, Texas, as part of the College Baseball Awards Show.

"These players have recorded some very impressive statistics," said Kevin Dunagan, Wallace Award co-chair. "They started the season strong and have continued to build on that success."

The revised watch list features shortstops from 15 conferences, with the ACC, Big 12 and SEC leading the pack with three representatives each.

Ryan Soares of George Mason leads the watch list in batting average (.411). He also has 60 RBIs and a .975 fielding percentage.

Adam Bryan of Troy has the highest fielding percentage at .991 to go along with his .353 batting average, 41 RBIs and 13 homeruns.

The leading home run hitter on the list is Morehead State's Drew Lee, who has 15 on the season, along with 14 doubles and one triple. He also leads in RBIs, with 62.

"We have a very strong field of candidates for this award again this year," Dunagan said. "I have no doubt they will continue to put up strong numbers as the season winds down."
